Mr. Abdul Rahman R. Al Haroun
International Counsel Bureau
Dasman Commercial Complex
Block No. 3 (8th Floor), Al Sharq
P.O. Box 20941
Safat, Kuwait

Dear Mr. Al Haroun:

We are very pleased that the International Counsel Bureau ("ICB") law firm has engaged Arnold & Porter (the "Firm") to provide legal services to it in connection with ICB's representation of the Kuwaiti families whose sons are currently detained at the Guantanamo Bay Naval Base. The purpose of this letter is to set forth our mutual understanding as to the basis on which our fees and related expenses will be charged with respect to this matter.

1. Fees. The Firm will charge ICB for professional services based on the time we spend on your matters. In addition, other factors permitted under the Rules of Professional Responsibility such as the degree of difficulty of the matter and the results obtained through the representation may be considered in setting fees. You should be aware that our billing rates are reviewed at least annually, usually in January of each year, and may be modified to reflect changes in our cost structure and related market conditions.

Our charges will include the time of attorneys and, where applicable, other professionals and paraprofessionals. These charges will also include the time recorded on this engagement by secretaries and word processing personnel. While some firms have elected to recover such elements of overhead through their basic charges for legal services, we believe it is more appropriate to charge our clients for such services only to the extent they are used in a particular engagement.

2. Reimbursement for Expenses. In performing this engagement, we will inevitably make disbursements and incur other internal charges on your behalf. These are likely to include such items as travel and transportation expenses (including subsistence expenses while on travel); charges for long distance telephone calls; express delivery and postage charges; duplicating charges; expenses associated with overtime work; and any special computer, data processing, or similar expenses that are beyond the capacity of the Firm's existing system. We will bill you at cost for charges paid to third parties, and charges for internal services will be billed at the Firm's usual and customary rates for such services. Travel expenses will be incurred after obtaining your approval.

3. Statements for Fees and Expenses. On a regular basis, generally every month, the Firm will send you a statement covering our fee charges and expenses, providing all such reasonable detail as you may require. All such statements are due and payable within 60 days following your receipt of them. We understand that internal accounts payable processing may occasionally cause delays in the payment of our statements, and I am sure that you understand that undue delays in the payment of our statements increase our costs in providing legal services to all of our clients.

4. Waiver. Arnold & Porter lawyers are located in five cities both in the U.S. and abroad and the Firm represents thousands of clients each year. So that we are not unnecessarily conflicted from representing you or our other clients, we routinely ask clients for advance waivers of conflicts of interest in matters distinct from the matters on which we represent them. Thus we request an advance agreement from you that Arnold & Porter will not be disqualified by reason of our representation of ICB from representing interests adverse to ICB in litigation, transactions or other matters that are not substantially related to the matters on which we have been retained by ICB. This waiver and consent would not permit us to represent interests directly adverse to ICB in matters that are substantially related to the work done for ICB. And, of course, we will hold your confidences and secrets in confidence.

If you have any questions about the understandings described above, please let us know. If the terms of the engagement are acceptable to you, I would appreciate it if you would sign and return to me the enclosed copy of this letter, evidencing ICB's agreement to these terms. Once again, let me say how pleased we are that you have engaged Arnold & Porter in this matter.

Sincerely yours,
